

NCORR: HELPING COMMUNITIES REBUILD SMARTER AND STRONGER

The following is a text alternative description for NCORR: Helping communities rebuild smarter and stronger

[The video begins with the NCORR logo.]

Descriptive text for the title slide: Logo for the North Carolina Office of Recovery and Resiliency. NCORR Helping North Carolina Rebuild Smarter and Stronger.

Vanessa Williams, homeowner: The water is coming out the ditch, running down the driveway.

Mark Holman, homeowner: The drains, they overflowed and caused complete destruction.

Graphic animates on screen: After Hurricane Florence, Governor Roy Cooper established the North Carolina Office of Recovery and Resiliency to help North Carolina rebuild smarter and stronger.

Sandra Settle, homeowner: And when NCORR took over ReBuild NC, it made a tremendous difference. It just catapulted things.

(Demolition noise)

Vanessa Williams, homeowner: I'm getting a brand-new house from the ground up. Yes, I am!

Mark Holman, homeowner: It's amazing!

Graphic animates on screen: Over 800 projects are complete or underway.

Vanessa Williams, homeowner: I love being in my new home.

Chasity Locklear, homeowner: My favorite part is the kitchen.

Vernestine Melton, homeowner: The flooring.

Mark Holman, homeowner: The lights in the kitchen.

Vanessa Williams, homeowner: All the closets. (Laughter) My closets have closets.

Graphic animates on screen: Over $251.3 million committed to recovery.

Vanessa Williams, homeowner: I just love my new home. I do. I really, really do.

Chasity Locklear, homeowner: I love everything about it.

Mark Holman, homeowner: I'm so blessed. It's like I told them every day. Thank you. Thank you. Thank you. Thank you!

[The video ends with the NCORR logo.]

Descriptive text for ending slide: Logo for the North Carolina Office of Recovery and Resiliency. NCORR Helping North Carolina Rebuild Smarter and Stronger. www.rebuild.nc.gov